Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, the Eighth Day of June, Anno Domini One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty-Six, and in the Twenty-ninth Year His Majeſty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
Wm. Murray, pro Dep. Secr.

William-Henry Lyttelton.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

To His Excellency WILLIAM-HENRY LYTTELTON, Eſq; Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA; and Vice-Admiral of the ſame.

The Humble ADDRESS of the SOUTH-CAROLINA SOCIETY.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to draw near Your Excellency with a ſincere Tender of our hearty Congratulation upon Your ſafe Arrival into this Province.

It is a Taſk too difficult for us to recount the many Acts of His Majeſty's Goodneſs to theſe His Dominions, far leſs can we fully expreſs our Thankfulneſs for them: We can truly ſay, that nothing is withheld from us that can miniſter to our Welfare; we enjoy our civil and religious Rights in the moſt ample Manner; and, although remote from our Mother-Country, we partake of all the Bleſſings of its happy Conſtitution.

The Tokens of His Majeſty's Munificence, are conſpicuous in private as well as in public Life. The ſmaller Circles in Society ſpeak forth the Royal Bounty, and, by expreſſive Eloquence, declare whence they derive all their Stability and Happineſs. It was but the other Day that this our Society became the Object of the Royal Favour: His Majeſty ſpoke us into Life, and graciouſly condeſcended to approve of that Law by which we ſtand incorporated.

Permit us, Sir, to ſay, that in Your Excellency's Appointment to this Government, we perceive a freſh Inſtance of His Majeſty's Goodneſs to this Province: This we truly eſtimate as a new Proof of His paternal Care of Carolina; and it is with real Joy, that in His Majeſty's perſonal Abſence, we behold a Repreſentation ſo worthy, promiſing, and auſpicious.

The Society implore Your Excellency's Patronage and Protection. And that God may bleſs and preſerve His Majeſty, and that Your Excellency may enjoy a long and happy Adminiſtration, is our moſt hearty Prayer.

By Order of the Society,
HENRY LAURENS, Steward.

Charles-Town, June 5, 1756.

To which His Excellency anſwered, viz.

Gentlemen,

I Return you many Thanks for this Addreſs: And receive, with much Pleaſure, the Aſſurances you give me, that my Arrival in this Province, in order to take upon me the Adminiſtration of the Government, is an Event that affords you Satisfaction.

The Senſe you expreſs of His Majeſty's great Goodneſs to all His People, and particularly to you as a Society, is ſuch as becomes dutiful and loyal loyal Subjects: And you may rely upon all the Favour and Protection I can shew, to a Body of Men whose Bond of Union is the Practice of Charity to the Poor, the Widow, and the Orphan.

May it please Your Excellency,

WE His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly approach Your Excellency with hearty and sincere Congratulations upon Your safe Arrival in this Province.

The long and happy Continuance of His Majesty's auspicious Reign, has furnished daily Examples of His Royal Care: In the Number of His fatherly Protections, we beg Leave to rank His Majesty's Nomination of Your Excellency to the high Station you now bear; wherein is a full Display of Royal Virtue countenancing private Merit.

If a Proficiency in the Laws of England, joined with personal Endowments, and accompanied with a full and ample Knowledge of our civil Rights, can contribute to good Government, we may reasonably expect a mild and benign Administration.

Your great Ancestor, whose Fame rolls down from Age to Age, inspires every Patron of the Law, and flatters us, that Juris-prudence will ever find Protection from the Name.

Ardent Zeal always waits on shining Merit. Permit us then, Sir, to wish that Health to Your Excellency which invigorates and enlivens each Breast that it possesses; that Health which will render Your Time pleasing and Your Administration light; and that the Life may be long preserved which comes to bless.

We remain, May it please Your Excellency,

Your Excellency's most humble and obedient Servants.

Charles-Town, June 5, 1756.

To which His Excellency made the following ANSWER.

Mr Chief Justice, and Gentlemen,

I Return you my hearty Thanks for this very kind Address. The very favourable Opinion you are pleased to express of me cannot but be agreeable to me: And you may be assured, that I have nothing more at Heart, than to carry the Intentions of our Most Gracious Sovereign into Execution in this Province, whose Royal Will and Pleasure it is, that all His Subjects should be governed with Mildness, according to Law, and that Justice should be duly and impartially administered throughout his Dominions.

I am perswaded, that you will, in your several Stations, co-operate with me in the Pursuit of this great Object, by steadily acting up to the important Trust reposed in you; and you may depend upon my firm and constant Protection.

The Humble ADDRESS of the MERCHANTS of CHARLES-TOWN.

May it please Your Excellency,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, Merchants of Charles-Town, beg Leave to congratulate Your Excellency on Your safe Arrival into this Your Government.

Among the many Instances this Province has received of His Majesty's Royal Favour and Regard, the Appointment of a Gentleman of Your Excellency's distinguished Worth and Character, to the supreme Command over us, claims our particular Acknowledgment: At the same Time, we desire to express our most grateful Sense of the Honour You have done us in accepting this Government.

We cannot doubt, but that the Interest of Trade and Commerce will always meet with Your Excellency's Favour and Protection; under which, it must be presumed, it will flourish and encrease: And, we flatter ourselves, that Harmony, Peace and Plenty, will be the happy Consequences of Your Excellency's wise and just Administration.

Charles-Town, June 5, 1756.

His Excellency's ANSWER.

Gentlemen,

I Return you my hearty Thanks for this Address; and set a very high Value upon the Sentiments you are pleased to entertain of me.

It is with peculiar Pleasure I reflect, that this Province, which His Majesty's great Goodness has intrusted me with the Government of, is as eminently distinguished by the virtuous Industry of its Inhabitants, as by the Fertility of its Climate and Felicity of its Situation: And there is no Object I shall pursue with more unwearied Attention, than to promote its true commercial Interests by every Means in my Power.

NEW-YORK. April 19.

BY a vessel from Albany which left that place friday morning last, we have advice of the safe arrival there of the New Jersey regiment of provincials.

Also, That Col. Broadstreet, being appointed the commandant of the battoe men, was marched with all that had arrived at Albany, and a number of the regular forces as a guard, consisting of about 2000 men in all. That they had taken with them about 250 battoes, and 200 whale boats; and by the latest accounts were got as far as the Little Carrying Place, on the Mohawks river.

Just as this vessel left Albany, an account came there from fort William Henry, at Lake George, That on monday last two battoes with 6 men in each, having been out on a scout, on their returning, one of them went ashore on an island in the lake whilst the other continued her course home: The next day, the other battoe not appearing, a large party went to the island in quest of them, where they found 3 of the bodies murdered, and the other 3 carried off.

'Tis said, there appears often a peculiar spite and malignity in the enemy, against such of the English as they get the better of; and that in the late destruction of Lieut. Bull, and the small garrison with him at the Great Carrying-place, they cut off that gentleman's head, and after cutting open his breast, took out his heart, and put it into his mouth, then placed the head upon a post, and left it.

Last wednesday the last body of the regular forces winter'd in his majesty's fort here, embark'd for Albany; and at the same time, the inhabitants of this city began to mount guard in the fort.

A number of cannon were shipped on saturday last on board a sloop lying at Coenjes dock for Albany.

Extract of a Letter from Oswego, dated March 31.

—"On the 27th instant, a corporal and a drummer belonging to the garison, were taken prisoners by by the Indians. A French deserter from Niagara is come here, and informs us, That place is made very strong; but that they are scarce of provisions, and that there is a great mortality among the people."

CHARLES-TOWN, June 10.

His Majesty's Sloop Jamaica, commanded by Capt Hood, will sail in a few Days, to join the Fleet at Nova Scotia.

And we hear, His Majesty's Ship Winchelsea will remain upon this Station.

It was strongly reported Yesterday, that Fort Cumberland in Virginia was taken by the French, and that Col. Washington's Party was defeated, and the Colonel taken and killed: But, as this Account comes by a Traveller, it may be as void of Truth, as the several Accounts we had before, by Travellers, of Battles gained, and large Bodies of Indians totally defeated by the same Col. Washington.

Yesterday the Clergy of the established Church presented their congratulatory Address to His Excellency the Governor, upon his Arrival in this Province.
